Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

It developed Saturday that when Capt. William E. Gunn, the absent manager of the Schuyler Arms Apartment Hotel, in New York, hurried off to Europe he took a bride with him. She had been Miss Gertrude Fentham, a pretty stengrapher, and they were married on September 23.

While the couple are in Europe presumably enjoying their honeymoon, two unpleasant disclosures were made Saturday which may dishearten the young wife. A shortage of $5,400 has been found in the Apartment House accounts, and persons who claimed to have known Gunn before he came East declared he has a wife and three children in California.

For several months Miss Fentham had been engaged to a young lawyer on Park Row. He knew nothing of the new attachment which his sweetheart had formed for her employer until he got a telephone message from her one afternoon about two weeks ago announcing her marriage to Gunn.

Although she is only 23 years old, this is the second time Miss Fentham has figured in a romance that turned out badly. Just two years ago Dr. William W. Wood, a dentist, and Lester F. Dwight, a chief electrician, who were roommates, quarreled over the affections of Miss Fentham. Wood, it seemed, had been courting her, and, finding that Dwight was beginning to pay attentions to the girl, he upbraided him. Both men are said to have drawn guns, but Wood was the quicker. Dwight was shot in four places. For a time it was believed the electrician would die, but after spending several weeks at the J. Hood Wright Hospital he recovered.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

In a jealous rage, Albert Fiedler, aged 45 years, a milk dealer of Baltimore, fired five shots into the body of his wife, Ida, yesterday afternoon, shortly before 4 o'clock in the parlor of his wife's home, at 209 South Duncan alley, and then turned the revolver to his right temple and sent a bullet through his brain. The wife died instantly, but the man lingered a few minutes, dying in the Eastern district police ambulance on the way to the John Hopkins Hospital. It is said by associates and relatives of the man who murdered his wife and then killed himself that he suffered from a peculiar form of hallucination.

After the marriage the couple moved into a home for themselves, and they saved several thousand dollars. Three years after the marriage Fiedler sold his business, put the money in bank and for the past nine years he had done very little work. For the past three years it is charged that he had refused to support his wife and children, except to give them a few dollars at intervals. For several years the family lived in a house on south Grove street, and it was during this time that jealously of an insane nature is said to have possessed the man.

Fiedler was so jealous of his wife that he had electric bells placed in his bedroom which connected with the front and back doors. He spent most of his time in the room, and every time the bell rang he would rush down stairs to see who entered or left the house. This peculiar action, the brother-in-law said, was due to a hallucination on the part of Fiedler that a man was visiting his wife. In his room, Mr. Barnoske said, the man kept a shotgun, two revolvers of the best make, an axe and a club, and he threatened to kill the man of his hallucination on sight.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

This bond was written by the PORTO RICO MOLASSES, just received by J. C. MILBURN.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 7, 1907.

AS STATED in the Gazette of that day United States Senator Lodge in his address as chairman of the Massachusetts republican State convention in Boston on Saturday dismissed the tariff question as "untimely" and the question of Canadian reciprocity as "unworthy of consideration." He asserted further that both these matters were national policies and had nothing to do with the election of a State governor. He said every one knows that no party, republican or democratic, would think of undertaking a revision of the tariff on the eve of a presidential election. But Mr. Lodge is like most of the other republican leaders in New England. They don't want the tariff discussed on the eve of a presidential election and don't want it considered during short sessions of Congress. It is anything with them to postpone action, but even the New England people are getting tired of the excessive tariff duties and the monopolies which they engender and the same convention at which Mr. Lodge made his speech, adopted a resolution favoring a special session of Congress for tariff revision.

As heretofore stated a great stir was caused in Winchester last week by the appointment of a special tax commission to probe and investigate many returns made under oath to the Commissioner of the Revenue of that city by wealthy residents. It is alleged that a large number of rich men have made false returns, and efforts are being made to have a grand jury investigation. The vice-president of the City Council declares that the city tax rate could be cut down 25 to 40 per cent. if taxable property was correctly turned in by the taxpayers. The state of affairs that exists in Winchester is similar to that all over the State, country and world. Tax dodgers are not indigenous to any one city.

A DISPATCH from Lexington, Ky., says: "Frank Dillon, aged seventy-nine, believed to be the last surviving member of the "six hundred" who charged the Russians at Balaklava, died there Saturday. He followed Lord Cardogan "into the jaws of death" and was wounded. He later came to America and fought with the north in the civil war. He was employed as a cobbler in Lexington."

During the past ten years, according to newspaper reports, a sufficient number of last survivers of the battle of Balaklava have died to have formed a regiment. In fact this number almost approximates that on the federal pension roll.

ALFRED H. SMITH, vice president and general manager of the New York Central Railroad, must stand trial for manslaughter, as the person responsible for the wreck of the electric express at Woodlawn, February 16, in which twenty-one persons were killed, as his demurrer to the indictment has been denied. Counsel for Smith has asserted that no allegation was made of his having omitted any duty imposed by law or contract, which is probably absolutely correct, but it is more than probable that a similar defense could not be successfully made of the crew of the wrecked train.

A LEARNED Austrian scientist is quoted to the effect that sour milk is "a veritable elixir of life." "It will prolong life materially if taken regularly." When one reads that it is only by drinking sour milk and eating breakfast foods that a man may expect to lengthen his days he realizes that the Hebrew writer was justified in what he said about the discomforts of living beyond threescore years and ten.

FOUR Spanish socialists who went to Paris to address the proposed meeting of protest against the French and Spanish operations in Morocco received expulsion orders immediately on their arrival and left on the next train. This was right and proper. Socialist agitators should be kept on the move and should not be allowed lodgment in any city or country.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 7.

The refusal of the directors of the Jamestown Exposition to follow the suggestions of Secretary Courtelyou, of the Treasury Department, relative to the selection of a director general, may shortly result in the government attaching the gate receipts. The fight between President Tucker and ex-Director General Barr may have a disastrous ending. It is understood that the present intention is to enforce the provisions of the law on the loan of $1,000,000 if Barr, who resigned as director general, is not again put in charge of affairs. The exposition still owes $900,000. Under the terms of the act the Secretary of the Treasury was given authority to take possession of the receipts after the second default in the periodical payments of $100,000. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Edwards, who returned today from Jamestown, declined to discuss the affair.

Misled by newspaper reports that the Virginia-West Virginia land case was to be heard in the U. S. Supreme Court today a number of persons gathered at the Capitol to hear the arguments but as the court does not meet till next Monday of course they were disappointed.

Twenty-seven hundred complaints, two hundred of which are regularly docketed cases, confronted the Interstate Commerce Commission, when it resumed its session after the summer recess today. Not all of these cases will be given the formality of a hearing. A portion will be taken up by special examiners, who will present the facts to the commission for a decision. Some criticism of the freight law has developed since its application by the commission. It is said that the phraseology is not sufficiently accurate, particularly with reference to the distinction between companies and railroads, but the disposition seems to be to test it further, leaving the interpretation to the commission rather than endanger it by again bringing it before Congress for revision.

Several officers of the United States army with game legs, fatty hearts, or cantankerous livers, filed mournfully into the offices of surgeons of the army today for examination in order to avoid the killing horseback ride that President Roosevelt has decreed all revolving chair soldiers in Washington shall take tomorrow. The ride is destined to go down in history, for among these staff officers are a number who can no more navigate a horse than they could stick on the cow that jumped over the moon. The examinations left about thirty-five officers physically fit to start. Fifteen miles, five on a trot and five on a gallop, is the test. Envious eyes are turned toward some of the officers who have saddle horses in the city to which they are accustomed. Officers who don't own steeds, and who will be required to take mounts from Fort Myer, are mighty glad that they go forth to do or die on animals that are at least used to the clank of the saber on the side. While most of the officers privately denounce the stunt as the most atrocious thing they ever heard of, a few of the youngsters are highly elated. If any of the old codgers should be retired because of their bad horsemanship, the chances of the younger officers for promotion would be improved just that much.

West Virginia has lowered the pride of Illinois by passing that State in the production of coal. From 1876 to 1906, Illinois was the second State in the union in the production of this fuel, Pennsylvania being first. According to a statement of the Geological Survey, issued today, West Virginia mined more coal in 1906 than Illinois. Ohio comes fourth, and Alabama crowds Indiana out of fifth place into sixth.

The October number of The Navy, a service publication, one of whose editors is supposed to be a retired admiral, continues its expose of alleged defects in the construction of the new battleships. It charges that the water-belt armor line is placed too low, so that when the ships are loaded with coal, supplies and ammunition, ready for actual war service, these belts are either awash, or so nearly so as to fail to provide the protection for which they were intended.

The Treasury Department received a letter today, postmarked New York, and signed "A Catholic" enclosing five ten dollar bills, out of which the writer said he had defrauded the government in pay of war tax on Wall street stocks and bonds.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Notwithstanding the large delegation which went from Richmond to Williamsburg, Saturday, to attend the special services in Bruton Parish Church, there was comparatively a large attendance on the House of Bishops when that body was called together at 10 a. m., and considerable business was transacted. Out of deference to the absentees no matters about which there was likely to be any serious division of opinion were taken up, but reports from a number of committees enabled the house to dispose of much routine business and clear the desks for an active consideration of the main problems before the sessons of this week.

The bishops agreed to the division of the Diocese of Georgia, and the resolution will go to the House of Deputies for their concurrence.

Petition from the independent synod of Brazil to be admitted as a missionary district of the American church was discussed, and finally referred to the committee on constitution.

The Bishops agreed to the admission of the missionary district of Duluth as a regular diocese, the church in that section having now become self-supporting. The admission of this diocese will go to the house for concurrence.

A petition was read asking that the State of Wyoming be set apart as a separate missionary district, the work in that State now being divided between several missionary jurisdictions. The petition was referred to a special committee.

The prominent foreign and domestic dignitaries of the church in attendance occupied the pulpits of various churches in the city yesterday and last night.

A mammoth open-air meeting was held in the Capitol Square in the afternoon, where many thousands of people assembled to hear the Lord Bishop of London speak.

It is said that Mr. J. P. Morgan's plan for holding the next meeting of the convention in New York will be adopted.

MURDERED BY A NEGRO.

Thomas Hastings, a baker on the receiving ship Franklin, was stabbed in the breast by an unknown negro at the intersection of Ivy and Mulberry streets, Berkley, Va., Saturday night, and died an hour later without identifying his assailant. The negro was not apprehended.

Hastings and Lewis Wagner, a seaman, were sitting in the second story of the house in which Hastings lived. Someone threw a brick, which struck near the window of the room. Hastings rushed down the stairs to learn the cause of the trouble. Wagner leaned out of the window and saw a negro spring from the shadow by the door and plunge a long knife into Hastings' body. The wounded man was taken by surprise and had no chance to defend himself.

Wagner stated to the police that when the stabbing took place a crowd of negroes of both sexes stood across the street looking toward the house as if in expectation. He saw the negro who stabbed Hastings run down Mulberry street waving the bloody weapon as he ran.

Alexander M. Fox, financier, and oldest director of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died at his home in Philadelphia yesterday, aged eighty-three.

Newport society crowded Trinity Church yesterday to see Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and her betrothed, Count Laszio Szechinyi, who was not there.

Gov. Curtis Guild, jr., and all the other incumbent State officers were renominated Saturday by acclamation by the republican state convention of Massachusetts.

William Francis Coxford, a gun dealer of New York and a member of the Old Guard, was killed and his wife seriously injured in a runaway on Riverside Drive yesterday.

The Lusitania sailed from Liverpool on Saturday on her second voyage to New York with 3,000 passengers, and it is believed will make a real effort to beat the record of the Deutschland.

A shower of aerolites, a fragment of one of which landed on top of Belair Market in Baltimore about 9:55 o'clock Saturday night, was seen in all parts of the city and for many miles around in the counties.

An explosion caused by the upsetting of the metal pot in the No. 1 cupola of the Standard Steel Company at Butler, Pa., late last night, caused the death of four men, fatally injured twenty, and seriously injured ten others.

Civil actions will be entered in New York to recover for the benefit of stockholders upward of ten millions dollars alleged to have been illegally paid from the treasury of the big New York traction companies to a corterie to politicans and financiers.

A social sensation has been created in New York through the announcement today that the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Winthrop Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Sevens, to William H. Emory, jr., son of Rear Admiral Emory, has been broken by mutual consent.

Both the candidates "nominated" at the democratic State convention at Springfield, Mass., Saturday began their campaigns today, as neither doubted the issue, which will be decided this week by the ballot law board. Both nominations will be filed today with the Secretary of State.

The arbitration committee of the peace conference, at The Hague after listening, to fifteen speeches Saturday voted in favor of the principle of obligatory arbitration, the vote standing 30 ayes and 8 noes. The negative votes included Germany, Austria-Hungary, Roumania, China and Belgium. Five countries abstained from voting and there were two absentees.

A mysterious robbery occurred at the Georgetown Convention sometime between 10:30 o'clock Friday night and 6 o'clock Saturday morning. The desk in the office of the Sister Superior was reported to have been pried open with a small tack lifter, and the Sister reports that between $200 and $300 in cash, a handsome diamond ring a coral necklace and a bracelet were taken from the desk.

Mrs. Oscar Lee Owens, whose husband is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Cambridge, Md., has left home and has returned to her parents' home, in Rochester, N. Y. She prefers charges against her husband, who addressed a letter to his congregation, which extends him sympathy and support. The preacher says his wife has not been in sympathy with his work in life.

The northbound Florida and West Indian limited passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line ran into an open switch and collided with a yard engine at South Rocky Mount, N. C., at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Engineer G. W. Boney, of the passenger train, was instantly killed and Postal Clerk T. T. Hill slightly injured. Although many passengers were thrown from their berths, none suffered injury. Both engines were completely demolished, as were also the mail, express and baggage cars.

By the collapse of the floor in the hall of the North End Athletic Club, at Waterbury, Conn., during a republican rally Saturday night, two hundred men were precipitated into the cellar of the building. As the floor gave way, a board knocked a blazing lamp from its bracket, and immediately the building caught fire. In a mad struggle to get out of the cellar, many of the men were trampled under foot. A wild panic reigned. One man was probably fatally hurt and many others were seriously injured.

After nine hours' deliberation the jury in the Rowland murder case yesterday morning at Raleigh, N. C., returned its verdict, finding Dr. D. S. Rowland and his wife, Mrs. Lilly M. Rowland, not guilty of the murder of Engineer Charles R. Strange, the woman's former husband. The verdict was received with approval by the court room crowd, and the defendants received effusive congratulations. The judge had to suppress the outburst of approval in court. The acquitted man and woman, the latter the widow of the alleged victim, held a public reception.

Allen Greenhow, of 821 Sixteenth street northwest, Washington, night clerk at the New Willard Hotel, was taken to Emergency Hospital about 4 o'clock yesterday morning suffering from fourteen stab wounds in his back and arms. Mrs. Glendola Greenhow, his wife was arrested shortly afterward charged with the assault, and held at the House of Detention until released upon bond of $500 for her appearence when an investigation of the case is made. An altercation, which the police say ended in the wounding of Mr. Greenhow by his 23 year old wife, it is believed resulted from domestic differences.

DIED.

Saturday, October 6, 1907, MARY ELIZABETH, widow of Dr. Bedford Brown, in the 80th year of her age. Funeral from her late residence, 202 north Washington street, at 1 o'clock p. m., Tuesday. Interment private at Rock Creek cemetery, District of Columbia.

Virginia News.

William D. Lee, one of the oldest citizens of Frederick county, died Saturday at his home near Winchester, after a brief illness, aged ninety-one years.

Two children of Cary P. Mundy—Elsie, aged ten, and Ernest, aged eight—were smothered in a fire, which destroyed their home at Lynchburg Saturday night. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp in the hallway, and the children, who were asleep in different rooms, were unable to escape.

Just as she had completed this morning the laying of the table for communion and the decoration of the chancel in Monumental Episcopal Church, a self-imposed duty she had performed regularly for years, Mrs. Eleanor Fisher, of 9 West Grace street, Richmond, dropped dead in the arms of her friend and assistant, Mrs. Richard Hughes.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will hold their reception at the State Building at the Jamestown Exposition on the evening of October 11th, when Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, of Norfolk, will be chairman of arrangements. The annual conference of the Daughters will take place in Norfolk this year, and Mrs. Donald McLean, the president-general, will attend.

The greatest altitude ever reached by a kite in this country, according to Professor Henry, of the Weather Bureau, was that recorded last Thursday at the Mount Weather Station, in Loudoun county, when an altitude of slightly more than twenty-three thousand feet was attained. At that height a temperature of 5 degree below zero, Fahrenheit, was recorded. It is Professor Henry's belief that the kite will yet attain a higher flight.

The nude body found in the mountains near Rich Patch mines, in the vicinity of Clifton Forge, last week, has been identified as that of S. Harlow, a peddler, of Staunton. The body was identified by the man's wife who went to Covington for that purpose. It is said that Harlow was in the Italian camp at the mines displaying his goods a night or two before he was found dead, and that 2 Italians have since left for New York. Everything points to foul play, and an effort will be made to bring the two Italians back to the county to answer the charge of murder.

One of the largest gathering of Masons ever held in Virginia will assemble in Norfolk tonight when the centennial grand annual conclave of the most excellent grand royal arch chapter of Virginia will convene. It is estimated that several thousand members will be in attendance. The committee in charge of the celebration is W. J. Hubard, chairman, of Lynchburg; W. H. Sergeant, jr., secretary, of Norfolk; John R. Charleton, treasurer, of Richmond; James E. Alexander, of Alexandria, and O. F. Byrd, of Portsmouth.

KING EDWARD'S BIBLE.

Without ostentation, and according to the ritual of the Episcopal Church, the historic ceremony incident to the presentation of King Edward's Bible and President Roosevelt's lectern to Bruton Parish Church was held within that historic old church at Williamsburg at noon Saturday. As was stated in the Gazette of that day, Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, presented the lectern, which was received by Bishop Randolph, of Southern Virginia. The Lord Bishop of London presented the Bible, which was received by Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, the presiding bishop of the American church.

The Bishop of London deviated from the announced programme when he sprung a surprise on the assembled congregation by presenting to Bruton Church a beautiful prayer-book, the gift of Bruton parish, in Somersetshire, England. This gift, expressive of the close and cordial relations binding the two Bruton parishes, was not only a complete and delightful surprise, delivered at a happy moment by the Bishop of London, but created a universal ripple of pleasant comment.

During the presentation of King Edward's Bible, Bishop Ingram said:

"In showing this mark of loving interest in the welfare of the church, my sovereign is only following out what has been done by many of his predecessors. Here and there all over America, certainly in those part settled previous to 1800, are to be found many communions services, fonts, and lecterns that were given by kings and queen of my country.

"The act of King Edward is not an unusual one, and I may add that it is not an official one. I am sure that King Edward VII will never forget that at the crowning moment of his life a Bible, such as this one, was presented to him and he was told that it is the most valuable gift that he can receive.

"Believe me, the king, my sovereign, has the warmest desire for the welfare of the people of America, and especially for the spiritual welfare of this and of all people. How appropriate is it that gifts from the two great peacemakers of the world should here meet in this hospitable place and remain here forever to do their part toward the peace of the world.

"All England congratulates you of America on the splendid act of Theodore Roosevelt in taking the lead toward peace between Russia and Japan, when they were engaged in an inhuman war. We look upon King Edward as a peacemaker. Could there be more appropriate gifts from the two great peacemakers, who are at this moment at the head of the two great English-speaking nations?"

Bishop Satterlee, in presenting the lectern, said that President Roosevelt sent his regrets at not being able to attend the ceremony in person. He said that two things are dear to the American heart—the Bible and the Sabbath. Bishop Satterlee sketched the history of the evolution of the open Bible, touching on the first translations and other interesting points.

Three Men Killed.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—The coroner of Lake county has begun an investigation to fix responsibility for the killing of three men and the injury of two by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern's mile-a-minute flyer to Gary, Ind., Saturday night. The men were waiting for a train to return to their homes in Chicago. Their train was a few minutes late and as it it drew on the "limited" dashed by in the opposite direction. Some one in the crowd cried: "Look out." Thinking they were in danger from the west bound train, the five men jumped to the other tracks and were struck by the eastbound train.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Charges Against the Standard.

New York, Oct. 7.—"The Standard's big stick has driven us out of the South African business, so that we have had to buy Standard oil in that country to fill our contracts," said Philip Harrison, of the New York Lubricating Oil Company, who took the stand today in the federal suit to dissolve Rockfeller's great New Jersery corporation. "We were doing a big and prosperous business until the Standard decided to take it away from us," continued Harrison. "Then the Standard told the ship lines they must have the rates lowered for them and raised for us or the Standard would build ship lines and cut transportation rates and put them out of business. We have been able to do nothing."

Harrison's company also had trouble with the railroads when they tried to ship oil by rail. Everywhere they turned the Standard was there ahead of them or arrived soon afterwards. Harrison is still fighting and in his demeanor upon the stand shows the bitterness that has been developed as he has seen his business fading out of existence. He testified that for South African trade his rates were raised from 23 shillings to 42 shillings 6 pence, while the Standard was given a rate of 17 shillings per ton.

Thaw's Second Trial.

New York, Oct. 7.—Harry Kendall Thaw's second trial for killing Architect Stanford White will begin Monday, December 2. The date was fixed by Supreme Court Justice Bowling today.

The Thaw case came up through the filing of a motion by Thaw's counsel for the dismissal of the indictment against the young Pittsburger for lack of prosecution.

District Attorney Jerome, in resisting the motion, declared the crowded condition of his calendar made it impossible for him to begin the trial before the first Monday in December.

While he was in no position, he admitted, to dispute the condition of the district attorney's calendar, Attorney Martin W. Littleton, for the defense, replied that he hoped the court would at least fix a definite date.

Justice Dowling complied with this request without protest from Prosecutor Jerome. Littleton having made no objection, Jerome announced that he will apply, within two or three days, for a special panel to hear the case.

Wants Divorce Recognized.

London, Oct. 7.—Unless the divorce secured by King Frederick Augustus of Saxony from his former wife, Louise Countess of Montnegro, whose marriage a fortnight ago to an Italian musician has again brought her into public notice, is recognized by the Vatican, he will renounce Catholicism and become a Protestant. A threat to this effect has been conveyed to the Pope, according to the correspondent of Dalsell's news agency in Rome. Frederick is anxious to marry again and has several times sought papal recognition of the divorce he secured following Louise's elopement with her children's tutor. He has always been refused such recognition. If he now leaves the Catholic Church, the entire royal family of Saxony will renounce its religion with him, according to today's dispatch.

Will Prosecute Lynchers

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 7.—Judge A. Hunter Boyd of the Supreme Court is determined that all of those who participated in the lynching of the negro William Burns, murderer of Policeman Baker, shall be punished. He instructed the grand jury that every person who took part in the killing is guilty of murder in the first degree and must be so indicted. "The action of this mob," he declared, "was a disgrace to the memory of Officer Baker, a brave man. His last words were to premit the law to take its course and he asked his fellow officers to protect his slayer." Subpoenaes have been issued for half a hundred persons, who, it is believed, have knowledge of the ringleaders of the mob.

The Hartje Divorce Case.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 7.—Upon the ruling expected in the superior court here today of Augustus Hartje's petition for the reopening of his divorce case against his wife depends the taking of evidence of a more startling nature than any yet submitted by the multi-millionaire Pittsburg paper manufacturer in his efforts to secure matrimonial freedom. Tom Madine, the coachman, is again to figure. He is now married and living in Belfast, Ireland, so that Hartje admits himself unable to put him on the stand in person.

Accidentally Shot Partner.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Confessing that he mistook his hunting partner, "Jack" Wilsey, for a deer and killed him while tramping the Herkimer county woods, George Harris is under arrest here today. The tragedy occurred Saturday morning, but Harris was so badly frightened that he fled to his home, leaving his victim's body in the woods. The corpse was found yesterday. Harris was arrested at church and has just told the story of the shooting.

The President in Louisiana.

Stamboul, La., Oct., 7.—All wise "bear" hereabouts took to the tall and uncut today. For not only did President Roosevelt start on their trail, but he was guided by Ben Tilley, most famous of all the "bar" hunters of the south.

Sunday was spent by the President in riding and walking. He is living in a 16 by 16 wall tent, with board door. He sleeps in a commodious bed and is as comfortable as if he were at home.

Twenty-two Convicts Killed.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—Perferring death to long exile in Siberia, a gang of convicts who escaped from Tumen to Tobolsk revolted against their guards today. A hand-to-hand fight followed in which 22 of the prisoners were shot and killed by guards. Eleven convicts finally made their escape, taken seven rifles with them. Six of the guards were injured in the fight.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and and chilblain disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by druggists, 25c.

The Strike in Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 7.—Double guards of police are on duty over the wharves to prevent an attack by the striking United Railroad Engineers on the American strikebreakers the company is landing today. Strong forces are also watching the railroad stations to protect new applicants for positions or old employes who may decide to resume work. The serious disorders along the railroad line yesterday warned the authorities that there was a prospect of trouble.

Officials of laborers are considering the advisability of calling a general sympathetic strike in retaliation for the railroad company's resort to the importation of engineers. About 4,000 men are now out. A strike call by the federation would swell the number to 180,000.

Missing Men.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 7.—Five men, residents of Long Branch, who started out early Sunday morning in a small power boat to lift lobster pots at sea, have not been heard from since their departure, and inasmuch as the boat was not seaworthy, had no anchor and but one oar, fears are expressed for their safety and a general alarm has been sent out to all the life saving stations along the coast.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 7.—London was a general seller and with domestic sales caused fractional declines all around the room in the first few minutes.

MARTIN IN BARR'S PLACE.

After a four-hour session, which was attended by about 60 of the 105 members the board of directors of the Jamestown Exposition Company on Saturday accepted the resignation of James M. Barr as director general and appointed to the position Alvah H. Martin, first vice president of the Exposition Company, a member of the old board of governors, president of the Merchants and Planters' Bank, of Norfolk, clerk of the Norfolk County Court and the leading republican politician of eastern Virginia.

Following a telegram from acting secretary of the Treasury Edwards requesting the continuance of Mr. Barr as director general, the directors voted down a resolution asking him to reconsider his resignation. A resolution calling for acceptance of the resignation was adopted after a heated controversy.

Mr. Barr resigned on September 16 as the result of friction with President Tucker, of the exposition, growing out of the administration of the social features of the tercentennial.

Mr. Barr was subsequently asked to withdraw his resignation, and a committee on ceremonies was appointed to take charge of social functions under the direction of the executive committee and the board of directors, all estimates of necessary expenses thus incurred to be subject to the approval of the director general. Mr. Barr, however, declined to withdraw his resignation at that time.

LYNCHING IN CUMBERLAND.

Warrants have been issued in Cumberland, Md., for the arrest of the ringleaders of the mob which, after midnight Saturday night, lynched William Burns, the negro murderer of Policeman August Baker.

Great indignation exists among lawabiding residents of Cumberland and of the county because of the action of the mob, which battered down the jail door, overpowered Deputy Sheriff Hedley and then broke the door of the cell in which Burns was confined. He was half dragged and half carried to the street, where he was kicked and shot to death. Bullets instead of a rope served the purpose of the crowd.

The lawlessness of the mob is generally condemned. Several preachers in Cumberland referred to it in their sermons yesterday, while among citizens generally there is a feeling that the good name of the city has suffered in consequence of the lynching. Judge Boyd is expected to refer to the outrage in his charge to the grand jury today.

SHERIFF KILLED BY BURGLARS.

Burglars shortly after midnight Sunday morning looted the First National Bank at Seddon, Ala., of cash variously estimated at from $20,000 to $300,000, killed Sheriff John Williams, and dangerously wounded his deputy, Edward Adams, and made their escape.

A citizen discovered the robbers at work in the bank and notified Sheriff Williams.

As the sheriff and Adams reached the bank the robbers attempted to leave, and Sheriff Williams called to them to halt. The robbers opened fire in the dark, and Williams was instantly killed.

Adams was wounded by the same volley. By this time the town was aroused, but the robbers ran through the streets carrying the cash they had, to the Southern Railway, where they seized a lever car and escaped.

FOOTBALL FATALITIES.

Thomas Bertram, twenty years old, of Altoona, Pa., received injuries during a football game yesterday at Portage, Pa., that caused his death. Bertram, who is a member of the Altoona athletic team, was playing against the Portage team, when he was kicked in the head during a scrimmage. His death, it is said, will result in prosecutions against those who played football on Sunday.

Eugene M. Bourne, thirteen years old, died at Salt Lake City yesterday as the first Utah victim of football this season.

A letter from the west says that Mike Barrett, of Philadelphia, a star half back in 1905 and 1906, has suffered the amputation of his right leg as a result of blood poisoning, following an injury to his knee received in last year's Swarthmore-Annapolis game.

LETTER TO WM O TOMLIN

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: Tell the owner: "I paint Devoe, nothing else: I'll paint whatever you like; it's your house, not mine; your job, not mine: It's mine, if I do it my way; it's yours, if I do it your way.

"It will cost you less, Devoe; less gallons to buy and brush-on; less money for wages; a gallon put-on is about $5; Devoe will cost less by a tenth to a half, according to what you compare it with; and wears better, how much better depends on what you compare it with—it may be a year, it may be ten.

"It is my business to know how to paint as well as to paint; and I do. You can see my jobs by the dozen."

That's straight talk. The man who can talk like that with a steady eye, will have plenty of business; good business too; and men will stand-by him.

SHOT BY A YOUTH.

A youth named Linden L. Haddox, about 16 years old, shot another boy named Justus Schneider yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock. The weapon used by young Haddox was a shotgun and the shooting, it is said, was the result of annoyance on the part of Schneider.

Haddox and Milton and Malcolm Elliott, two other youths, were in a boat off the Queen street dock when the gun was discharged by the first-named.

According to Haddox's statement, Schneider and a large number of other youths threw stones and sticks at his party. Haddox's tormentors were so persistent that he returned to the wharf and disembarked, went to his home, 210 north Fairfax street, with his companions, climbed into a rear window of his home during the absence of his parents, and obtained his father's gun. Upon returning to the wharf he re-entered his boat when he was again molested by young Schneider and others which so exasperated him that he fired the gun. Following the shooting Haddox rowed rapidly to the other side of the river, and, after hiding his gun, returned on the ferry steamer, with his companions, about 6:30 last night when he was arrested by Lieut. Bettis. Chief Goods later arrested Malcolm Elliott and Milton Elliott was taken into custody by Officers Knight and Garvey.

The gun used by young Haddox contained a charge of bird shot, some of which entered Schneider's left side and arm. After he had reached his home he was attended by Dr. O'Brien. His injuries are not of a serious nature.

Haddox and the Elliott boys were arraigned in the Police Court this morning, but their case was postponed, as young Schneider was said to be unable to appear.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Several hundred members of the Knights of Columbus from Washington, New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other points came to this city yesterday to witness the exemplification of the first, second, and third degrees of the order which were conferred upon a large class of candidates at St Mary's Hall where Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, of the order meets. The first and second degrees were conferred by Spaulding Council, of Washington; the third, or major degree, by District Deputy Daniel J. Griffin and staff of officers, of Brooklyn, New York. The visitors were subsequently entertained at dinner at the Hotel Rammel and later visited the various points of interests, including the Masonic lodge rooms. Members of Fitzgerald Council will confer the first degree of the order upon a class of candidates of Spaulding Council, Washington, October 17. They will also attend the special vesper Sunday next, under the auspices of the Washington members of the order, at St. Aloysius Church Washington.

EXPLODED POWDER CAN.

Elbert Anderson, the little son of Mr. Walter Anderson, living on north Royal street, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon. The boy and some playmates were in a small tent, amusing themselves when they found a can, the contents of which they were ignorant of. The boys had kindled a fire and the can was placed over the blaze. In a little while there was a terrific explosion, as the can contained powder, and a cloud of white smoke filled the yard. Young Anderson was the only one of the youngsters injured, he having been painfully burned on different parts of the body.

PRESENTATIONS.

At a meeting of Mount Vernon Chapter Royal Arch Masons, Friday night Past High Priest Henry K. Field was presented with a past high priest's jewel. The presentation speech was made by Rev. E. V. Register, chaplain. Mr. Field responded with appropriate remarks.

J. Johnson Greene was the recipient of a life membership in the Masonic Home, the gift of the chapter. Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher made the presentation on behalf of the chapter.

MEN'S MEETING.

The special meeting for men, held yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was a successful affair in every particular. About 100 men were present. The address was delivered by Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, who discussed the theme, "A Truncated Life." A special musical programme, which was published in Saturday's Gazette, was well-rendered and much enjoyed by all present.

RALLY DAY EXERCISES.

The rally day services in the Second Presbyterian Church, under the auspices of the Sunday school last night was an interesting occasion. A large congregation was present. A literary and musical programme was rendered and much enjoyed as was also all other features of the exercises. The collection amounted to $410.76. This amount will be added to the fund now being raised for the purpose of erecting a new Sunday school building.

GUNSTON SOLD AGAIN.

Mr. Paul Kester, who dramatized "When Knighthood was in Flower," and other plays, has again bought Gunston Hall. Gunston Hall was at one time owned by George Mason, who wrote the bill of rights for the State of Virginia. It is an improved tract of 418 acres. It fronts on the Potomac river, in Fairfax county, about 13 miles from this city. Mr. Kester purchased the property several years ago but afterwards sold it.

NAVAJO WINS.

On Saturday last at Brighton Beach, "The Chantilly Steeplechase Handicap" was won by "Navajo," owned by Mr. Courtland H. Smith, of Alexandria county. This is said to have been the most exciting race of the year and took place in the presence of 20,000 spectators.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Brown, widow of Dr. Bedford Brown, died at an early hour yesterday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. A. G. Uhler, corner of Cameron and Washington streets. The deceased had been a sufferer from heart disease for a long time, but had been sick but a few days. She was found dead, she having passed away in her sleep without a struggle. Mrs. Brown was born in Montgomery county, Md She was a daughter of the late Joel Simpson, of Maryland, and was eighty years old. Her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Uhler, and two sons, Mr. Glenn Brown, an architect of Washington, and Dr. William Brown, of New York, survive her. The deceased had lived in Alexandria during the past 37 years, coming here with her husband from North Carolina where she had lived for several years before and during the civil war. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from her late home. Rev. William J. Morton, of Christ Church, will conduct the services, and the interment will be in Rock Creek cemetery, Washington. The pallbearers will be her grand sons.

Mrs. Emma R. Cottrell, wife of Mr. J. W. Cottrell, died at her home, 307 north Columbus street, this morning. The deceased was a native of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Virginia Semmes, widow of Douglas Semmes, died at the residence of her son, Rev. Thomas Semmes, in Richmond, last night. The deceased leaves two children—Rev. Thomas Semmes and Mr. Charles D. Semmes, of this city.

Elizabeth, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Desmond died at its parent's residence, 216 north Patrick street, Saturday evening, and was buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

JACOB WEISS RELEASED.

Jacob Weiss, who was held at the Alexandria county jail in connection with the shooting of John W. Mullen, on September 29, near Rosslyn, Alexandria county, was released yesterday morning on $1,000 bail. He will appear for a preliminary hearing at the courthouse of Alexandria county at Fort Myer Heights next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Emil Weiss, his son, became his surety. Amelia, the daughter, is still a prisoner, and bond will be refused for her until after the hearing. Mullen's condition is rapidly improving and it was said last night at the hospital that he would undergo an operation this morning, when the bullets would be extracted from his neck and body. Mullen, it is said, told the Commonwealth's Attorney that Miss Weiss carried a pistol on the evening of the assault and that she gave the weapon to him before they entered the woods where the assault occurred. Mullen says he examined it and found it was of no use as a weapon, and replaced it in his pocket. After he had been shot and started for Washington, he thought of the weapon, and taking it from his pocket, offered it to a negro who was passing along the road. Seeing that Mullen had been shot in the mouth, the negro refused to take the weapon and the wounded man then threw it in the bushes at the side of the road.

DANCE AT GOLF CLUB.

The house committee of the golf club gave a most enjoyable dance at the club house on Saturday night. It was the first dance of the autumn season, and quite a number of young people from this city and Washington were present. The chaperons were Mrs. C. William Wattles, Mrs. Isaac Grigg and Miss Phil. Wattles. During the intermission, about 10 o'clock, when most of the guests were on the porch, the entire horizon was lighted by a meteor more brilliant than any ever seen in this locality, and for the space of several minutes the hill was brighter than on the brightest of moonlight nights. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Mary Dabney, of Charlottesville; Miss Hildred Gatewood, Miss Agnes Harvey, Miss Josephine Harvey, Dr. Charles Billard, Messrs. Charles Cheyney, Lecompte Ford, Frederick Newton and Ashley Rowell, of Washington.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Some excitement was created in the extreme northwestern section of the city late last Saturday night by a row which occurred between some of the attendants at a dance given at the residence of John Sims. A young man named Lee Goram, who was under the influence of liquor, imagining some men were about to attack him, went to his home and procured a gun. As he was in the act of leaving the house he accidentally dropped the gun when the weapon was discharged. Mr Edgar Padgett, who was nearby at the time, was shot in the side and breast, and one of the shot entered his nose. Goram was arrested and brought before the Police Court this morning. He was fined $5 for disorderly conduct, as it was shown that the shooting was accidental. Mr. Padgett's injuries are not serious.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Charles McCoy and Mary Gilliam, both colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each.

Harry Brown, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Linden Haddox, charged with shooting Justus Schneider, jr., with a gun, had his case continued. Malcolm and Milton Elliott, charged with being accessories to the shooting, had their cases continued.

Lee Goram, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

OPERA HOUSE.

The attraction at the Opera House next Thursday will be the English melodrama, "The Shoplifter." This drama is said to be full of excellent comedy, good dances and the latest songs. "The Shoplifter" introduces a type of woman who redeems herself by her own heroic efforts of reform and saves girls and young men from destruction. The shoplifting scene will take place in a reproduction of Casperfield & Cleveland's jewelry store, on the Bowery, New York.

The International Association of Fire Engineers will meet in Washington tomorrow.

A Criminal Attack

STATIONERY.

Welcome Mail Man!

Don't you eagerly await his coming and watch with interest as he sorts your mail? He brings consoling words of love, friendship and happiness.

Are these words really consoling when carelessly written on cheap flimsy paper? Doesn't a letter seem to personify Purity and Sincerity when neatly done on a good substantial and up-to-date writing paper?

Your letter will be much more welcome if written on

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 7, 1907.

STEAMER STRUCK BY WAVE.

The Cunard Line steamer Umbria, from New York, arrived at Queenstown yesterday morning a day late. Her passengers were surprised by the alarming exaggerated reports that had gained currency about the vessel's delay. They state that last Sunday bad weather was encountered.

On Monday matters became worse and the vessel shipped a number of heavy seas. In the course of Tuesday evening a monster wave came over the bows. It is estimated that 70 tons of water dashed over the foredeck. The lookout and the forward bridge were swept away, and a portion of the wreckage was entrangled around the foremast.

The immense weight of water broke in the side of the saloon, doing considerably damage there. Three rails on the captain's bridge were broken, the canvass along the rails washed away and a portion of the railing damaged.

The passengers were much frightened but there was no panic. The Umbria stopped for three hours. She made 252 miles on Tuesday. The weather was also severe on Wednesday. The boatswain's boy was knocked down and sustained a facture of the leg. This was the only accident that occurred.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotton rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.

KILLED BY POLICEMAN.

Issac Jaffe, twenty-three years old, the son of a cigar manufacturer of New York, and living with his parents in Brooklyn, was shot and instantly killed last night in Saratoga Park, Williamsburg, by Policeman Shuttleworth.

Jaffe was with a crowd of young men in the little park when Policeman Shuttleworth ordered them to move on. The policeman finally arrested Jaffe and started with him for the gate of the park.

The friends of the dead man say that the policeman beat Jaffe brutally with his club and that the young man pleaded with him to be merciful. At the gate, these compsnions say, Jaffe ran, fearing he would be clubbed to death. Policeman Shuttleworth, they declare, shot deliberately at Jaffe when the boy was only ten feet from him.

The bullet entered the base of Jaffe's skull and came out through the right eye. The young man died instantly.

Policeman Shuttleworth went to his station, reported the case, and was locked in a cell on a charge of homicide.
